

A WAITING GAME.

The City Council Had a Hard Struggle to Get There,

BUT IT MADE THE RIFFLE

By About One Minute by the Watch. After an hour's delay a quorum was obtained in the second branch. Although it came near exhausting the patience of the members present--A Democratic Member Who Did Not Want an Adjournment to Colonel Fellows's Night in Town.

After an hour's hard work on the part of the deputies and the exercise of a great amount of patience on the part of the members present a quorum was finally secured in the second branch of the council last evening, but it was only secured by enforcing the rule for the arrest of members wherever found.

If Mr. Walther had only been detained one minute the branch would have adjourned. Pending his arrival a resolution was offered to adjourn until next Tuesday evening, when a good Democratic member shouted, "Oh! that won't do. Colonel Fellows speaks here on that night." The date was then fixed for Friday night, but Mr. Walther's arrival making a quorum the motion for adjournment was withdrawn and the roll call discovered the following members present: Messrs. Bailey, Brock, Freeze, Hadlich, Kaitzner, Kenney, Kreiter, Morningstar, O'Leary, Prince, Robertson, Seaman, Walther, Weitzel and President Jepson. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The committee on cemeteries reported bills amounting to $274.28, which were ordered paid.

The committee on police reported bills amounting to $227.55, and their payment ordered.

The other standing committees reported, as heretofore detailed in the INTELLIGENCER, and their action concurred in. The committee on fire department reported the appointment of Joseph Zeigender as engineer at the Atlantic engine house, vice James Berry, resigned.

The report of the stone bridge commission, the proceedings of which have been printed, was adopted.

The resignation of George Bell as weigher of the scales at Forty-fifth street was accepted.

Mr. Bailey offered a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee of Council and citizens to provide for a fitting celebration of the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America on October 21, which was adopted.

The bill of Joseph Young, as assessor, for $250, and the bills of J. C. Pickett and Patrick Weir for the revaluation of real estate, amounting to $384, for 108 days work, were referred to the board of equalization and appeals.

The liquor licenses acted on Tuesday night were called up again and formal action taken, granting the same.

Mr. Morningstar offered a resolution forbidding the tearing up of more than two squares at a time by the street railway company in relaying its tracks. Also that the board of public works be requested to open up Fortieth, Forty-first and Forty-second streets. Adopted.

The city clerk's statement showed a balance of appropriations on hand amounting to $168,615.83. Collector White reported collections amounting to $108,857.20.

A joint session of the branches was then ordered for the election of a successor to George Bell as weigher of scales at Forty-fifth street, and on the nomination of Mr. Morningstar, Moses Bell was unanimously elected as his successor. It was afterwards found that Mr. Bell was disqualified and on motion the vote was rescinded.

On motion of Mr. Wilson it was ordered that proposals for the scales be advertised for. The joint assembly was then dissolved.

In the first branch there was concurrence in the action of the second branch in the several measures passed by the latter body, with the exception of the street car ordinance, which was objected to by Mr. Weidebusch. There was some trouble in obtaining a quorum in this body, and after it was obtained Mayor Seabright vacated the chair and called on Mr. Farrell to preside. The following members were present: Cadie, Dobbins, Emsheimer, Farrell, Grimm, Meyer, O'Kane, Pollock, Weidebusch, Wilson and Zarnitz.

NOTABLE NUPTIALS.

The Roemer-Sweeney Wedding at St. Matthew's Church Last Evening.

The St. Matthew's P. E. church was the scene of a very pretty and notable wedding last evening. The event was unusually attractive, owing to the popularity of the bride, who is well known for her musical accomplishments and charms of person.

Shortly after the doors were thrown open the edifice was completely filled with a large and fashionable assemblage of interested friends and relatives of the happy couple. The chancel was ornately treated with palms, potted plants and flowers, and made brilliant with innumerable lights, which, combined with the handsome toilets worn by the guests, presented a very animated and beautiful scene.

The strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, sung by the choir, composed of Messrs. Day and Sweeney, Mrs. Flora Williams and Miss Theresa Phillips, a pleasing innovation in a marriage ceremony, announced the approach of the bridal party. First came the ushers, who had performed their functions in a graceful manner, Mr. Thomas Bell Sweeney and Mr. Robert B. Gilchrist, Mr. James A. Ewing, of Charleston, Mr. L. B. Marks and Mr. Norman Clark, of Washington, and Mr. Will H. Cassell. Alternating with the ushers were the bridesmaids, Miss Louise Amy Norton and Miss Rose Reynolds Lukens, attired in lavender silk, demi train, and Miss Martha A. Hare and Miss Ann T. Brownlee, of Washington, Pa., attired in pink silk, demi train.

Following the ushers and bridesmaids came two charming little fairies, dressed in white, as flower girls, Misses Fanny Wheat and Eliza Spidel, after whom came the maid of honor, Miss Edith Hall Lewis, of Pittsburgh, attired in a blue silk faille demi train. Then came the bride, Miss Sara Patterson Sweeney, leaning on her father's arm, Mr. A. J. Sweeney. The bride presented a charming vision, attired in a beautiful gown of heavy white bengaline silk, with pearl trimmings, cut decollete, entraine. She carried a bunch of white roses and wore a bridal veil.

The bridal party on reaching the altar, separated on each side, where they were met by the groom, Mr. Charles Ogilvie Roemer, accompanied by his best man, Mr. Will H. Sweeney. Rev. R. E. Swope performed the solemn ceremonies, which were brief and impressive. Professor Herman Schockey playing softly on the organ all through the ceremony.

At the conclusion of the service the bridal party reversed order, the flower girls, preceding the happy couple strewn flowers, followed by the groomsmen and bridesmaids.

Immediately after the wedding the bridal party, with a number of intimate friends and relatives, repaired to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sweeney, on North Main street, where a reception was held.

The parlors were tastefully decorated with plants and cut flowers. The guests viewed with delight the many beautiful presents. Almost everything useful and ornamental in silver and gold, china, glass and bronze was displayed.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. A. J. Sweeney, the well known manufacturer, and is a favorite in prominent social circles. The groom, Mr. C. O. Roemer, is a well known young man in business circles in this city, holding a responsible position with J. C. Alderson's Insurance Agency. The couple were the recipients of many warm congratulations from their large circle of friends. They left at 10:30 p. m. on the B. & O. for an extensive western tour.

Among the guests present from other cities were Mr. and Mrs. Averard, of Cumberland; Mrs. Miller, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Fleming, of Fairmont, W. Va.; Mrs. Sarah Moore, of Minneapolis, Mr. and Mrs. Findlay, of Akron, O.; Miss Mary Bankard, Miss Carrie Bankard and Miss Mollie Bankard, of Pittsburgh; Rev. William McMichael and wife, of Monmouth, Ill.; Miss Mame Garden, of Bellaire; Miss Effie Hull Lewis, of Pittsburgh; Miss Ann T. Brownlee, Norman E. Clark and L. B. Marks, of Washington, Pa.

INCAPACITY AND INHUMANITY.

Comments of the British Press on the Cholera Scare and the Action of the Fire Islanders.

LONDON, Sept. 14.--The Globe, commenting on the cholera scare in the United States, says: "Seldom, if ever, has panic, cruel as it always is, taken a more cruel form than the American quarantine. The deaths occurring in the lower bay at New York are not all due to cholera. Whether or not, most of them must be directly ascribed to the plague of quarantine. This is the way to manufacture pestilence officially. The worst aspect of the whole matter is the evidence that Democratic authority cannot be trusted to keep its head in a crisis, even if it can be trusted to keep honesty."

The St. James Gazette says: "The cruel and inhuman treatment of the passengers of the Normannia by the people of Fire Island seriously reflects on the American character for administration."

The Morning Post says: "It is quite natural for America to desire to keep cholera at arms length. Asiatic cholera has never before invaded America. It has, therefore, the additional terror of novelty. The disease might also imperil the success of the Chicago World's Fair by lying dormant during the winter and bursting out with vigor next summer with the exceptional facilities provided for it in New York rookeries. In short, there is something to excuse, though not to justify, the attitude of the people of Islip."

The Daily Telegraph says: "The Fire Islanders may have been pursuing a prudent policy, but practically they were outraging the very name of humanity. All of these scandals might have been avoided had the governor of New York sent a sufficient body of troops to the scene."

The Times says: "The Fire Island trouble is a disgraceful affair. Reasoning and appeals alike were wasted upon the stolid cowardice of the people. The incident affords singular testimony to the cruelty and folly of which civilized man is capable under the influence of a panic."

The Standard says: "The Fire Island affair was a piece of savagery more worthy of Central Asia than America." The News says: "There was no intentional barbarity in the treatment of the passengers on the steamer Normannia, only muddle-headed incapacity and ignorance."

Marriage at Steubenville.

That "Force Bill" Issue.

The following is the plank in the Republican platform which the Democratic party denounces as "revolutionary and an outrage on the people of the South." Will any honest, patriotic citizen say that it is unpatriotic and un-American? The "force bill" issue is a side issue raised to create sectional prejudice and to hold the solid south in line, and here is the Republican declaration it is based on:

We demand that every citizen of the United States shall be allowed to cast one free and unrestricted ballot in all public elections, and that such ballot shall be counted and returned as cast; that such laws shall be enacted and enforced as will secure to every citizen, be he rich or poor, native or foreign born, white or black, this sovereign right guaranteed by the constitution.

The free and honest popular ballot, the just and equal representation of all the people, as well as their just and equal protection under the laws, are the foundation of our republican institutions, and the party will never relent its efforts until the integrity of the ballot and the purity of elections shall be fully guaranteed and protected in every state.
